Skipper & Students off to Austria

Skipper Ingham, founder of Bermuda Karate Institute, along with senior student Gladwin Phillips, WKO karate champion in 1994, departed Bermuda today with two athletes competing from Bermuda Kickboxing Organization in the K1 section of WAKO (World Association of Kickboxing Organizations) World Championships to be held in Villach, Austria, from October 19th to 26th .

Ray Sillar, who teaches Muay Thai at BKI and student Darren Lee will be fighting in different weight categories. The tournament is a qualifier for a new event called the Martial World Games to be held in Beijing in 2010.

About 600 athletes from 60 countries are expected to compete, according to event organizers whose entry deadline was September 10. The other categories of competition are light contact and low kick; athletes are only allowed to compete in one discipline.

The timetable lists team arrivals on October 19th, weigh-in and medical control on October 19th and 20th, referee seminar on October 20th and 21st, WAKO board meeting and presidents' banquet on October 21st, with qualifications for light contact on October 22nd. K1 and low kick are both ring sports and their qualification rounds will be held on October 24th, with finals for all event categories on October 25th.
